

Table of Contents

Duress finger 1

Duress finger

A fingerprint chosen to generate a certain event upon fingerprint registration. If a user authenticates himself/herself with such a fingerprint, the authentication gets recorded in a log as duress fingerprint authentication. The system administrator can set a separate alarm using the log.

From:

<https://kb.supremainc.com/knowledge/> -

Permanent link:

<https://kb.supremainc.com/knowledge/doku.php?id=en:duress>

Last update: 2015/08/31 09:46